Salem Catholic Schools are back in full swing for the 2014-2015 school year. Blanchet Catholic School, Queen of Peace School, Sacred Heart Elementary School, St. Joseph School and St. Vincent de Paul Catholic School opened their doors to students last week. The Foundation wishes a happy new school year to all the principals, teachers, staff and students.

Foundation Welcomes New Executive Assistant

Salem Catholic Schools Foundation has added a new player to assist Foundation President Kevin Mannix. Anne Kirkpatrick is the new executive assistant for the Salem Catholic Schools Foundation. Kirkpatrick has been an active member of St. Joseph since moving to Salem in 2004, where she is an extraordinary Eucharistic minister, and her children are servers and choir members. She graduated from Cornell University with a degree in history and most recently was office manager of a large farm in Salem.

Anne's responsibilities as Executive Assistant include administrative assistance to the president of the Foundation, serving as secretary to the Board of Directors of the Foundation, coordination of the Foundation's committees, maintenance of daily operations of the Foundation, assistance with the Salem Area Catholic Schools Association and development of grant applications.

"Anne will be a strong asset to the Foundation," said Mannix. "We welcome her to the Salem Catholic
